DEDICATION

Mrs. Mabel B. Fiske

Mrs. Mabel B. Fiske-in recognition of your thirty years of service as English instructor at Charlton High School-we, the Seniors of 1960, take special pride in dedicating our Yearbook to you. Throughout your years at Charlton High, your name has been associated with Dramatic Club and Senior Class plays, Class Day and graduation speeches, and with other projects just too numerous to list. As our advisor for the past four years, you have been exceedingly generous with your time and your talent. We will always remember your kindness and your consideration for everyone. As a teacher you have made a lasting impression upon each of us. May God bless you!

In Memoriam

The class of 1960 wishes to pay reverent tribute to Rodney N. Fiske, who for many years served the town of Charlton. As a true public servant, his life was centered around the work of the school, the church, and the community. The little time he allowed himself for recreation was spent working in his garden and at his vegetable stand. Service, Sincerity, and Sociability—these were his attributes.

SENIOR HONOR ROLL

VINCENT BARNARD

"Vinny" was voted by his classmates the best dancer and the best looking senior boy. He has been captain of both the basketball and the baseball teams. "Vinny" plans to further his education after graduation. Basketball 4; Baseball 4; Athletic Club 3; Letter Club 1; Student Council Representative 1; Glee Club 4; Highlights Staff 2.

EDGAR BARNES

"Little Mose's" ability in Public Speaking for the F.F.A. brought him many awards. He was also a valuable member of several Dramatic Club productions. The Seniors chose him as the best actor. Edgar's plans for the future are uncertain. He has been active in F.F.A. 4; F.F.A. President 1; Vice-President 1; and Secretary 1; Dramatic Club 2.

RENHOLT BERG

The seniors named "Renny," their most cooperative classmate, a title he earned by his contributions to class activities. "Renny" is mechanically-minded and enjoys working on cars. He plans to enter the U.S. Navy after graduation. F.F.A. 1; Athletic Club 2.

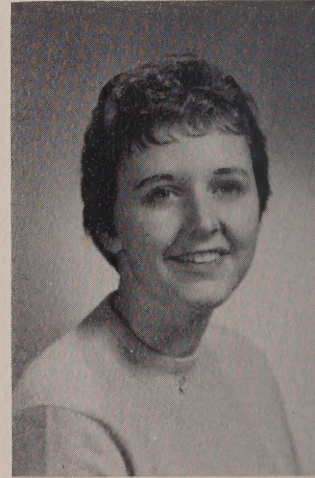

ELIZABETH BLAIS

"Betty," who is one of our most polite Seniors, is always ready to lend a helping hand. She has been a member of the Glee Club 1; Voice Class 2; Basketball 4; Honor Roll 3; Softball 1; Student Council 1; Athletic Club 4; Treasurer of Athletic Club 1; Highlight Staff 1; Yearbook Staff 1. As Betty is wearing a diamond on the third finger of her left hand, we know that she plans to walk down the aisle in the near future.

LORRAINE BOULANGER

"Tootsie," voted our best dressed Senior girl, is friendly, witty, cheerful, and pleasant. Her activities are Athletic Club 4; Glee Club 4; Girls' Voice Class 3; Driver Ed; Pep Squad 2. "Tootsie's" plans for the future are uncertain.

SYLVIA BURNS

"Sibby," voted as the most mischievous senior girl, surely lives up to her title as she is one of our most vivacious and lively seniors. Sylvia possesses a pleasing personality, most comely appearance and a beautiful voice. Many times at All-Star Assemblies she has made our class proud of her musical talents. She has been active in Drama Club 4; Voice Class 3; Glee Club 4; Driver Ed 1; Highlights Staff 1; Yearbook 1. Sylvia plans to train to be a nurse.

MARY CASEY

Mary is undoubtedly one of the quietest members of our class, although her closest friends find her to be fun-loving. She has been a member of Athletic Club 3; Pep Squad 1; Homemaking 2. She plans to do office work after graduation.

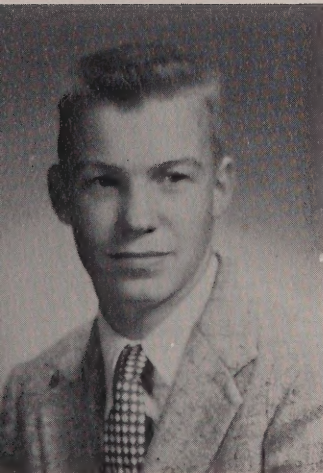

ELAINE CLARK

Elaine, voted the quietest member of the Senior Class, has participated in Athletic Club 4; Glee Club 1; and has also done her share on our paper drive and our Cards and Gifts project. Elaine's future plans are uncertain.

MILDRED CLARK

Mildred, voted the most industrious, is very quiet and serious about her work. She has been active in Driver Ed and has participated in our Cards and Gifts project, and the Senior Paper Drive. Mildred's plans for the future are uncertain.

THOMAS COOPER

"Tommy," voted the most cheerful member of our class, has been an active F.F.A. member for four years. He was F.F.A. Vice-President for two years, and Sentinel for two. His activities include: Cattle judging, DHIA Testing, and Public Speaking. He has always done his share on our Senior Class Projects. Although Tom's plans are uncertain, we surely wish him luck.

ELAINE DAVIS

Elaine, voted the best looking and most courteous, is very cooperative and studious as her honor marks show, for she has received all A's in scholastic marks for four years. Elaine, one of our A #1 typists, has worked very hard on every class project and has always done more than her share of work. Elaine, who combines the highest scholastic marks with courtesy, industry, and integrity, will be long remembered for her proficiency as a typist, her acting ability, and her kindness. Her activities include: Glee Club 1; Student Council 2; Voice Class 2; Yearbook Editor 1; Highlights Staff 2; Class Officer 3; Club Officer 1; Drama Club 4; Pep Squad 2; Card & Gift Committee 1; Honor Roll 1; Highest Honors 3. Elaine plans to attend Business School after graduation.

JACLYN DAVIS

"Jackie," voted the most cooperative, is a very quiet and studious senior, as her honor marks show. Her activities in high school include: Voice Class 2; Driver Ed; Highlights Staff 1. "Jackie's" beautiful diamond shows her plans for the future.

SALLY DAVIS

"Bimbo" is, the eyes of her classmates, our wittiest and most popular senior girl. Her friendly manner and pleasing personality help to make her a dependable and valuable member of the class. "Bimbo" plans to attend a teachers' college in the fall, and we know that future students will be grateful for her decision. Dramatic Club 4; Glee Club 4; Voice Class 3; Student Council 2; Highlights Staff 1; Honor Roll 3; Yearbook Staff 1; Cheerleader 4; Class Officer 3.

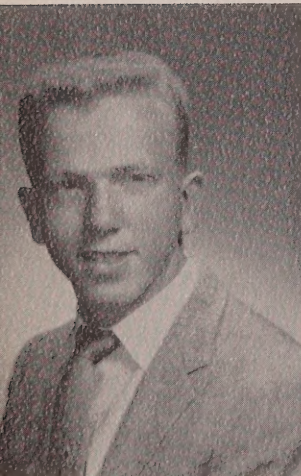

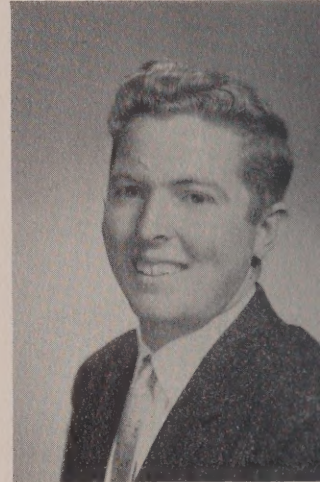

MAUREEN DRAKE

"Mo," voted the girl with the nicest smile, is one of the mischievous senior girls. She is pleasant, kind and cheerful. Maureen has been a member of Pep Squad 1; Athletic Club 4; Voice Class 3; Driver Ed. She plans to go to Hairdressing School after graduation.

WALDO EASTMAN

Waldo, with his bright red hair and his genial smile, is one of the friendliest boys in the senior class. He has participated greatly in all of the senior activities, particularly in the paper drive and in the magazine contests, which he won three times. Yearbook Staff 1; Highlights Staff; Athletic Club 4. Waldo plans to work for his father after graduation.

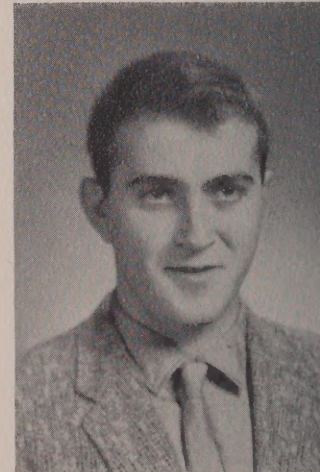

FRANK HAMMOND

"Frankie," elected by his classmates as best sport, is always identified by a happy laugh. As one of our Agricultural boys, Frank has been very helpful on all the class projects. His high school activities include: Assistant basketball manager 2; F.F.A. Officer 4; Driver Education 1. We know Frank will be a successful farmer.

RUSSELL HARMON

Russell, who talks least and says the most, as his classmates see him, has been an active member of the F.F.A. for the last three years. He has brought honor to the school by winning several awards in F.F.A. events on the local, state and national levels. Russell plans to attend Stockbridge School of Agriculture after graduation. F.F.A. Secretary 1; Treasurer 1; Chefs' Club 1.

HAZEL JUDKINS

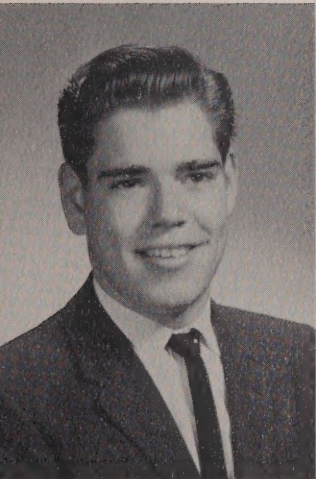

Vivacious, loquacious, attractive and neat, Hazel is usually the center of a group of admiring males. The class will always remember her excellent performances in our plays, which won her their vote as our best actress. Hazel plans to attend the University of Massachusetts. Glee Club 4; Voice Class 3; Dramatic Club 4; Highlight Staff 2; Yearbook Staff; Pep Squad.

QUENTIN KUEHL

Our most friendly senior, Quentin gets along well with everybody. He likes railroads the way Mr. Perry used to like trolley cars and hopes to work for a railroad company when his school days are over. Athletic Club 2; Drama Club 2; All Star Assembly 3.

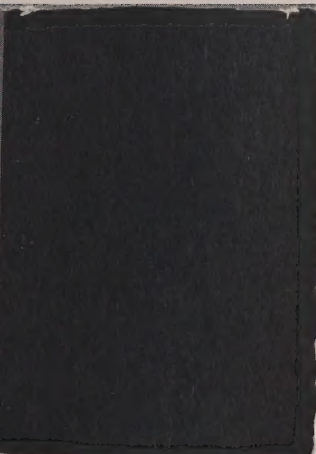

ROLAND LATAILLE

Any sudden outburst of laughter heard anywhere in the building could easily be "Hot Rod." Roland is one of our very jovial members, who seems to be most ubiquitous. His good humor surely affects everyone around him. His activities in the past four years include: Drama Club Play; Orchestra 4; Photo Club 3; Photo Club Treasurer 1; Electronics Club President 1; Audio-Visual Aids 4; Student Council Audio Technician 2. We wish "Hot Rod" success in whatever field of work he enters, particularly "his" Navy.

JOHN LOCONTO

"Jono," voted by his contemporaries, as the most representative of the Blue and White, surely lives up to his title. He is respected by faculty and pupils for his industry, integrity, and cooperation at all times. In addition to securing a very good scholastic average, Jono has been most active in all the extra-curricular life of our school. He has been a member of Student Council 3; Student Council Pres. 1; Secretary of Electronics Club 1; Photo Club 3; Drama Club Play Cast 1; Glee Club 4; Exchange Student 1; Highlights Staff 2; Audio-Visual Aids 4; Class President 1. As Business Manager of the Senior Yearbook, "Jono" broke all records in securing ads. He plans to attend University of Massachusetts next year where he will study to become a restaurant manager. With his industry and personality we know he will be a great success.

PETER LOCONTO

"Pete," voted the class flirt, is a pleasant, fair, industrious, lovable, but quick-tempered Senior. Should you see a casual looking fellow, strolling down the hall with a book under his arm, it could easily be our "Pete." Although Pete participates in many school activities, he always finds time for his studies. His activities include: Student Council 3; President of Sophomore and Junior Classes; Photo Club 2; Athletic Club 1; Electronics Club 1; Audio Visual Aids 4; Drama Club Play, A Man Called Peter, and Glee Club 2. Pete plans to attend a technical institute next fall.

DOROTHY McKISSICK

"Dotty" is a quiet senior, whom the class chose as the most friendly. She has always been a dependable contributor to class projects. "Dotty" plans to become an airline hostess after graduation. Drama Club 2; Pep Squad 2; Voice Class 1; Basketball 3; Softball 2; Athletic Club 1.

JOANNE MILLER

"Jo," voted by her classmates as the "most likely to succeed," combines a pleasing personality with a very conscientious, studious, polite, and cooperative manner. She holds the distinction of being the only member of our class who has received Highest Honors for four years. Joanne also has always done her share, or more, on class projects and has participated in these activities: Glee Club and Orchestra 4; Drama Club 4; Student Council 3; Pep Squad 1; Mass. Central Chorus Group; Voice Class 3; Highlight Staff 2; Co-Chairman Card & Gift Committee 2; Co-Editor Yearbook; Exchange Student 1; National Honor Society; History Award. Joanne plans to attend Vassar or Radcliffe where she will study a pre-medical course.

RUTH MILLER

"Ruthie," voted our best dancer, is cheerful, kind and mischievous. She has been active in Glee Club 3; Voice Class 3; Athletic Club 4; Basketball 2; Softball 2; Pep Squad 1; Home Ec. 2. Ruth plans to go into Nurses' Training after graduation.

THOMAS PERREAULT

"Tom," one of the most talkative and energetic members of our class, is always willing to take a stand for his beliefs. Tom has been generous with his time and his car for class projects. Tom plans to enlist in the U.S. Navy after graduation. Chefs' Club 1; Athletic Club 3; Highlights Staff.

ELSIE PHILLIPS

Elsie, 'our short, blue-eyed blonde, has been very active during her high school years. Orchestra 4; Glee Club 4; Voice Class 3; Drama Club 4; Student Council 3; Cheerleader 2; Softball 3; Honor Roll 3; Class Officer 2; Club Officer 2; Highlight Staff 1; Highest Honors 1; Yearbook Staff 1; Student Council Treasurer 1; Ice Cream Seller 1; Mass. Music Festival Chorus 1. She plans to attend Wards Schools after graduation.

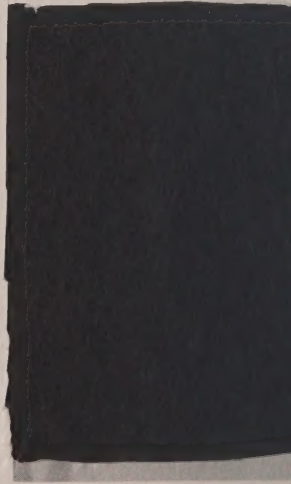

JEAN ROBBINS

Friendly, cooperative, and an outstanding worker on all class projects, "Squeaky" won the class vote as best sport and best salesman. She has participated in Athletic Club 4; Glee Club 3; Voice Class 2; Student Council 2; Highlight Staff 1; Driver Ed. 1; Pep Squad 1; and in addition to all her activities, "Squeaky" was our second highest saleswoman on our Cards and Gifts project. She plans to do office work after graduation.

LORRAINE ROBIDOUX

Lorraine is one of our friendliest, most cooperative and well mannered senior girls. She has been active in Dramatic Club 4; Voice Class 3; Glee Club 2; Ice Cream Seller 1; Lunch Counter Bookkeeper. She plans to attend Wards Business School after graduation.

RONALD ROIX

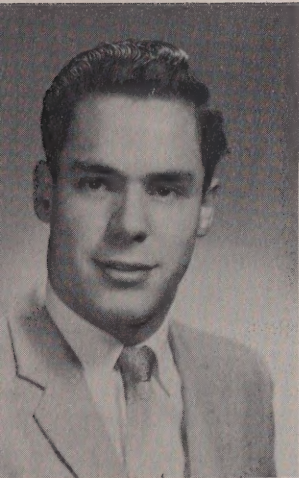

"Ronnie" was voted "most Athletic" by his senior classmates in recognition of his way with a basketball. His plans for the future are uncertain. Basketball 3; Athletic Club 2; President 1; Letter Club 1; Letter Club President 1.

LEAH ROY

Leah, who was voted as the Senior with the nicest eyes and as class sweetheart, is sometimes very quiet and sometimes very mischievous, but, she is, on the whole, a very industrious young lady. She has worked hard on all class projects and has always turned in more than her share of sales. She has been in Drama Club 4; Voice Class 3; Card & Gift Committee 1; Yearbook Staff 1; Lunch Counter Register Operator 1. She plans to train for nursing at Worcester City Hospital.

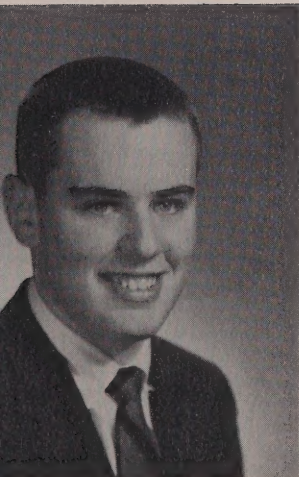

HAROLD RUSSELL

Harold, voted by the classmates as the best dressed and the class sweetheart, was still able to find time for all class projects. Harold has not as yet decided what comes after graduation. Class Vice-President 1; Athletic Club 1; Dramatic Club 1; Glee Club 2; Orchestra 2; Student Council 1; Audio Visual Aid 4.

ERNEST SAHLIN

The senior girls feel that "Ern's" smile is the nicest in the class. Everyone agrees that he is a helpful fellow, ready to give the class a hand when he can. His efforts helped make successes of our Junior Prom and the Paper Drive. "Ern" plans to attend a technical school next fall. Card and Gift Committee; Highlights Staff 1; Drama Club 2; Fine Arts 1.

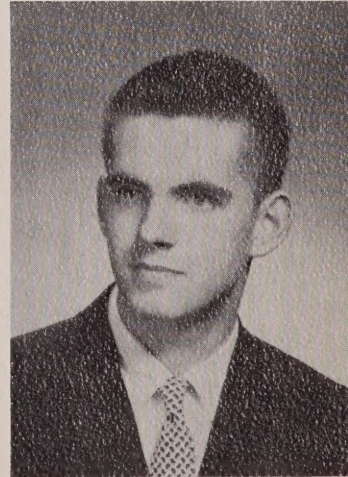

MARTIN SLEEPER

"Sleep," our Senior Class president, is one of our most popular students. His most characteristic qualities are vitality, an outstanding personality, and super intelligence. He has been active in many of our extra-curricular projects. "Sleep's" activities include: Honor Roll 4; Student Council Vice Pres.; Member of National Honor Society; Boys' State Representative; Student Exchange; Leading man in Drama Club play; Fine Arts Club President. "Sleep" plans to attend a liberal arts college next fall, preferably Harvard. Good luck, "Sleep."

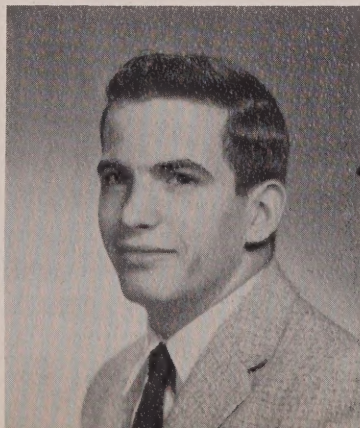

CARMAN SMELTZER

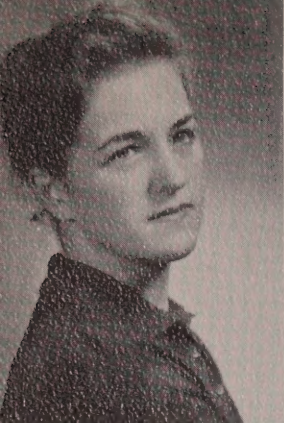

Carman was voted the quietest boy by his senior classmates who know that he has also been very active in class activities. Carman plans to enter the service after graduation and eventually, to become a heavy-equipment operator. Science Club 2; Photo Club 1.

WARREN SNOW

"Bobby," with his power of salesmanship, paid the way to Washington for more than one Senior. As a result, the class voted him their best salesman. "Bobby" plans to enter the service after graduation. Athletic Club 4; Baseball 3; Driver Ed. 1; Yearbook Staff 1.

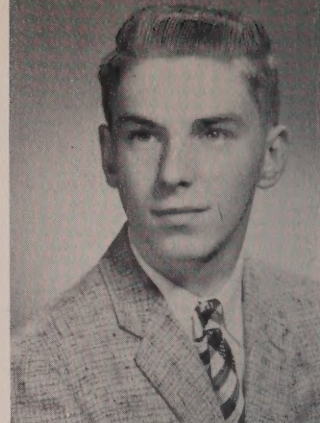

GRACE STOCKMAN

"Gracie," voted the most bashful, is a very quiet, and reserved member of the Senior Class. She has been active in Voice Class 3; Glee Club 3; Photo Club 1; Pep Squad 1. Gracie plans to do office work after graduation.

CARL STONE

Carl, voted by his classmates as the most polite senior boy, has done his share, or more, on all of our class projects. His activities include: Chefs' Club 3; Pres. of Chefs' Club 2; Student Council 2; Fine Arts 1; Photo Club 1; Glee Club 1; Audio-Visual Aids 2. Carl has been accepted at University of Massachusetts for next September, where he will major in Food Management. Good luck, Carl, as a Restaurant Manager.

SANDRA STONE

"Sandy," voted by her classmates as the Senior with the best personality and most representative of the Blue and White, combines high scholastic marks for four years with tremendous extra-curricular participation. Tall, slim, clever, jovial, and polite, our versatile Sandy has been elected by her class and faculty as our C.H.S. representative for Good Government Day and DAR representative. Her activities include: Drama Club 4; Glee Club 4; Voice Class 3; Orchestra 4; Cheerleader 3; Captain 1; Basketball 1; Manager 1; Class Officer 4; Club Officer 4; Honor Roll 4; Highlight Staff 2; Student Government Day Rep. 1; Co-Editor of Yearbook 1; National Honor Society; Mass. Music Festival Chorus 1; Co-General Chairman of Card & Gift Committee. "Sandy" plans to become a nurse.

ALBERT THIBAUDEAU

"Thib," a fun-loving, industrious, dependable senior, is surely the most popular. He won the wittiest, the best artist, and the most popular Senior by a landslide vote. Class treasurer for four years, he has taken good care of funds. He has been active in Glee Club 2; Student Council 1; Fine Arts 2; Vice-Pres. of Printing Club 1; Highlights Staff 2. "Thib" plans to attend Worcester State Teachers College next September, where, because of his industry, and personality, we are sure he will make his mark as a future teacher. Good luck, "Thib."

KATHERINE TIBERII

"D.J.," voted the most Athletic girl, walks with a spirit of determination that surges through all her activities. Glee Club 4; Pres. Glee Club 1; Voice Class 3; Basketball 4; Co-Captain 2; Softball 3; Manager 1; Pep Squad 2; Student Council 1; Class Officer 2; Drama Club 4; Honor Roll 2; Highlights Staff 2; "D.J." plans to attend college where she will major in physical education.

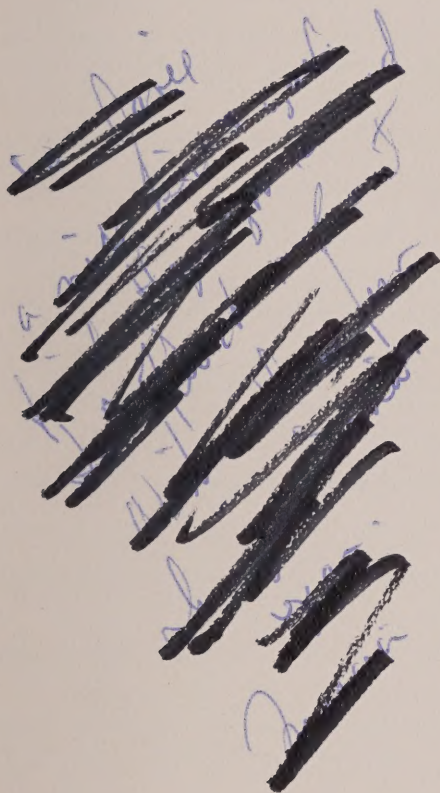

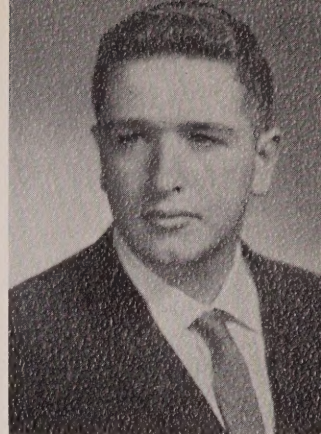

CYNTHIA TUCKER

"Cindy," voted as the Senior girl with the best teeth, has been quiet, studious, and very well-mannered during her C.H.S. career. On all Senior Class projects, Cindy has turned in all, or more, than her share of profits. She has participated in: Voice Class 2; Drama Club 4; Card & Gift Committee 1; Yearbook Staff 1; Lunch Counter Cashier 1; Ticket Seller at Basketball games 1; Pep Squad 1. Cindy plans to enter nurses' training school at Worcester Memorial Hospital.

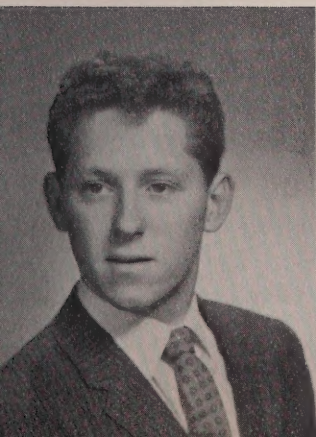

DONALD VAUNDELL

"Don" is a quiet member of the Senior Class, but his cooperative and sporting ways make him well-liked by everyone. Don has done his share on many fund-raising activities we have held. Don has been a member of the Athletic Club 3; Honor Roll 3; Highlights Staff 2; Card & Gift Committee 1. Don will attend Worcester State Teachers College in the fall, and we are sure he will be successful.

MARCIA LEE VESEY

Marcia, voted the best artist, is very shy, but pleasant. Her soft voice is characteristic of her gentle nature. She has been active in Free Hand Drawing 4; Drama Club 2; Voice Class 1; Highlights Staff 2. She plans to become a Commercial Artist.

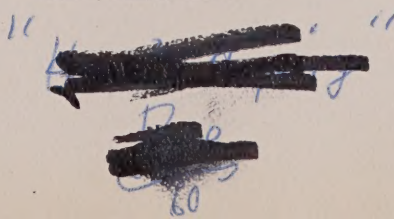

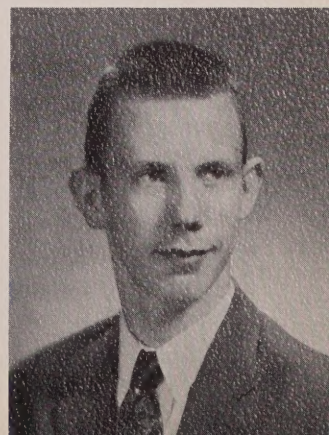

WILLIAM WALKER

"Bill," has been an active member of the F.F.A. throughout his high school days, during which time he was president of the group for one year, and vice-president another. "Bill" plans to join the service after graduation. He has been active in Dramatic Club 2; Public Speaking; Basketball Manager 2.

DAVID WILLIAMS

"Dave" is a quiet member of the class who has been helpful in class activities. His classmates named him the most agreeable senior boy. He hasn't decided yet what course he will steer after June. Photo Club 2; Science Club 1.

Class History

In September of 1956, fifty-two timid freshmen entered Charlton High School. This was a big day for us, for we would now start our four year journey, which would end with our class trip to Washington, D. C., and graduation.

We were separated into two rooms, one under the direction of Mrs. Fiske and the other under Mr. Sullivan. Each room selected its own officers, who were as follows: presidents-Elsie Phillips and Vincent Barnard; vice-presidents-Sandra Stone and Sally Davis; secretaries-Elaine Davis and Loretta Caplette; and treasurers-Albert Thilbaudeau and Lorraine Robidoux.

We were sorry to lose William Clark and Robert Corriveau, shortly after the school year had begun.

Honor roll students for the year included Joanne Miller and Jean Robbins with high honors, and Elaine Davis, Jaclyn Davis, Sally Davis, Hazel Judkins, Ruth Miller, Elsie Phillips, Lorraine Robidoux, Leah Roy, Martin Sleeper, and Sandra Stone, with honors.

We all worked ambitiously on our freshman hop, which was the outstanding event of the year. It gave us a large profit, with which to start our class treasury. Another big event was the annual magazine drive, which our class won. We were all well-rewarded for this victory by Mrs. Fiske and Mr. Sullivan, who took us to the Ice Follies in Boston, and by the student council who gave us money for our treasury.

Our freshman mascot, which, by the way, we still have, was a red and white Teddy Bear, named Repeat, donated by John Dawber, a member of our class.

Mrs. Fiske planned a beach picnic for us with Mr. Chambers, Mr. Sullivan, and Mrs. Gast, as chaperones. We enjoyed a special outing at Nantasket Beach.

So ended our freshman year, but with the help and guidance of Mrs. Fiske and Mr. Sullivan, we happily journeyed on.

SOPHOMORE YEAR - John Loconto

Now for our Sophomore year and the second step on our journey to 1960 with Mrs. Mabel Fiske and Mr. Donald Sullivan as our advisors. We started our Sophomore year with forty-nine students, but soon welcomed two new members: "Ronnie" Roix and Mary Casey. We were sorry to lose Loretta Caplette, John Dawber, and James Bower.

Since our class was divided into two rooms, we had two sets of officers. They were as follows: John Loconto and Peter Loconto; Presidents; Elsie Phillips and Katherine Tiberii; Vice-Presidents; Sandra Stone and Loretta Caplette, Secretaries; and Albert Thibaudeau and Lorraine Robidoux; Treasurers.

The following pupils were in the cast of the Dramatic Club play, Seventeenth Summer: Hazel Judkins, Elaine Davis, Elsie Phillips, Martin Sleeper, John Loconto, Ernest Sahlin, John Dawber, Leah Roy, and Cindy Tucker.

Our Sophomore Hop was held on May 16, 1958. We had very beautiful decorations, which were lent to us by the Junior Class, who had used them for their Junior Prom.

Our Sophomore Honor students were Joanne Miller, Sandra Stone, Elaine Davis, Elsie Phillips, Jean Robbins, Lorraine Robidoux, Leah Roy, Martin Sleeper, Donald Vaundell, and Elizabeth Blais.

With Mr. Ewing, Mrs. Fiske, and Mr. Sullivan as our chaperones, we concluded our Sophomore year with a most enjoyable class trip to Lake Winnepausaukee, in New Hampshire.

JUNIOR YEAR - Katherine Tiberii

We began our Junior year in September of 1958, with 44 pupils. We were happy to gain one more, Ann Hawthorne, from Spencer, and regretfully lost one, Donna Ferguson.

Our class was still separated into two rooms, under the supervision of Mrs. Mabel Fiske and Mr. Donald Sullivan.

Each room selected its own officers who were as follows: Presidents, Peter Loconto and Sandra Stone; Vice-Presidents, Harold Russell and Katherine Tiberii; Secretaries, Elaine Davis and Sally Davis; and Treasurers, Lorraine Robidoux and Albert Thibaudeau.

We began our class activities by winning the annual magazine drive. This added a few dollars to our ever growing treasury. Our class decided to have candy and food sales in the months of September and October in order to add money to our treasury for our Senior Class Trip to Washington, D. C. and New York. In September and October we sold Golden Crumbles; in November we had a Round Robin Food Sale; and in December we sold chocolates and Golden Crumbles, again.

The class was also very pleased with their class rings which they received in October.

On October 10, we held our Junior Hop in the new school cafeteria. It was a financial success, and a good time was had by all.

Our Junior Prom which was held on May 1, 1959, under the supervision of Mrs. Emma Hammond, was a tremendous success. As this was the Silver Anniversary of Charlton High Junior Proms, our class decided to go all out and spend extra money to make our Prom most spectacular. It was just that. Our theme was "Moonlight and Roses," with a unique decoration in the form of a float. The float was gaily decorated with hundreds of American Beauty roses that were all handmade. The following girls spent many hours working on the float: Jean Robbins, Elaine Davis, Sandra Stone, Sally Davis, Marcia Vesey, Leah Roy, Lorraine Robidoux, Katherine Tiberii, and many more. Our class colors are American Beauty and Silver, with American Beauty roses as our class flower.

On November 21, 1958, the Dramatic Club presented the play "A Man Called Peter," directed by Mrs. Mabel Fiske and Mr. Donald Sullivan. The following Juniors contributed to its overwhelming success: Martin Sleeper and Hazel Judkins who portrayed the leading roles of Peter Marshall and his wife, Catherine. They were well supported by Sandra Stone, Sally Davis, John Loconto, Harold Russell, Joanne Miller, and Elaine Davis. The play was such a great success that the cast was invited to put on a second performance in the Oxford auditorium. Although the cast was asked to put on additional performances in Sutton and surrounding areas, we had to refuse because of other class activities.

At the end of our Junior Year, we were justly proud of Elaine Davis, Joanne Miller, Martin Sleeper, and Sandra Stone, who won highest honors for the entire year. The following pupils were on the regular honor roll: Elizabeth Blais, Sally Davis, Hazel Judkins, John Loconto, Elsie Phillips, Jean Robbins, Leah Roy, Katherine Tiberii, and Donald Vaundell.

We came to the end of our Junior year feeling quite proud and satisfied with our scholastic, social, and financial attainments and looking eagerly forward to this last lap of high school career--Our Senior Year.

Class History

SENIOR YEAR - Hazel Judkins

On September 9, 1959, we started our final year at dear old Charlton High School, dreamily looking forward to our long anticipated Washington trip. This year has proved to be the hardest, and by far, the most enjoyable of our high school career. Although we've started the year with forty-eight hard working Seniors, we soon regretfully lost Ann Hawthorne, Fred Dickinson, and Wilfred Saviole.

The following class officers were chosen to guide us through our final year; President, Martin Sleeper; Vice-President, Sandra Stone; Secretary, Elaine Davis; and Treasurer, Albert Thibaudeau.

On October 16, we held our Senior Hop, which surely proved to be a social and financial success. After that, we held our Senior Paper Drive. Directed by our principal, Mr. Ewing, we were very successful, with a profit, $280., which was an all-time high. We had many never-to-be forgotten laughs during our efforts.

Following closely was our all-out drive to sell Christmas cards and gifts. This required much work, not only from each member of the class, but particularly from Mrs. Fiske, who put in long hours of her time to make this project a success. We were, of course, proud and happy to realize a profit of approximately $1,000.

In November, we started work on the Christmas Highlights, with the following staff: Editors: Sandra Stone and Joanne Miller; Assistant Editors: Jean Robbins, Lorraine Robidoux, Elsie Phillips, Hazel Judkins, Donald Vaundell, and Carl Stone; Alumni: Martin Sleeper; Assistant Alumni Editors: Elizabeth Blais and Jaclyn Davis; Art Editors: Marcia Vesey and Elaine Davis; Assistant Art Editors: Sylvia Burns and Leah Roy; Joke Editors: Albert Thibaudeau and Sally Davis; Assistant Joke Editors: Elsie Phillips, Thomas Perreault, Ernest Sahlin, and Cynthia Tucker; Business Editor: John Loconto; and Sports Editors: Vincent Barnard and Katherine Tiberii.

The last of December, we started working on one of the biggest Senior projects, our Yearbook. Our editors were Sandra Stone, Joanne Miller, Elaine Davis, and John Loconto. Our business manager, John Loconto, reached an all-time high in securing ads. The assistant staff members included Dorothy McKissick, Leah Roy, Cynthia Tucker, Warren Snow, Waldo Eastman, Lorraine Robidoux, Elsie Phillips, Jean Robbins, Katherine Tiberii, Ronald Roix, Vincent Barnard, and Hazel Judkins. Our Class History was written by Leah Roy, John Loconto, Katherine Tiberii, and Hazel Judkins; the Class Will, by Elaine Davis; and the Class Prophecy, by Elsie Phillips. Those who worked on the superlatives were as follows: Sandra Stone, Sally Davis, John Loconto, Roland Lataille, Mary Casey, Ruth Miller, Renholt Berg, Donald Vaundell, Grace Stockman, and Leah Roy.

On February 6, the Seniors held their annual supper, under the direction of Mr. Ewing. Baked beans, ham, brown bread, rolls, and salad comprised the menu. Serving on the Senior Committee were Elsie Phillips, Martin Sleeper, and Hazel Judkins, as chairmen. We divided the town into sections for selling tickets, and made nearly a $500 profit.

January 11, 1960, was the day of the Orchestra Committee Meeting. Three Seniors, Elaine Clark, Albert Thibaudeau, and Hazel Judkins, chairman, met, with Mrs. Hammond, to discuss the selection of an orchestra for our Senior Reception. The committee decided upon Russ Cole, and the class unanimously accepted the committee's recommendation.

The Senior Class Play Reading Committee; Sandra Stone, Sally Davis, and Hazel Judkins, read Love is Eternal, Diary of Ann Frank, and January Thaw. After much deliberation, the committee recommended January Thaw, and the class accepted this as our Senior Class play, for April 8. The play, coached by Mrs. Mabel Fiske, assisted by Mr. Donald Sullivan, was a great success, dramatically and financially.

Sandra Stone, who during her four years at CHS has combined proficiency in scholastic marks with maximum participation in the extra-curricular life of our school, was selected, by the Senior Class and the faculty, as our student government representative in Boston, and as the recipient of the DAR medal.

As a Senior Class, we pay high tribute to all of our Seniors who won scholastic honors, but particularly to Joanne Miller, who received highest honors for four years; and to Jean Robbins, Martin Sleeper, Elaine Davis, Sandra Stone, and Joanne Miller, who were on the honor roll for four years. The following students have honor marks for the Senior year: Jean Robbins, Joanne Miller, Elaine Davis, Martin Sleeper, Sandra Stone, Elsie Phillips, John Loconto, Mildred Clark, Lorraine Robidoux, Jaclyn Davis, Hazel Judkins, Albert Thibaudeau, Elizabeth Blais, and Sally Davis.

At the end of January we chose our chaperones for our class trip. They were as follows: Mrs. and Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Fiske, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, and Mrs. McCormack. We left on our long-awaited trip to New York and Washington, D. C. on February 19, and returned tired, broke, but happy on February 23. The trip proved to be educational, enjoyable, and well worth waiting for.

Finally, our Senior Year comes to a close with joyous Commencement Week--Class Day--Yearbook Day--Baccalaureate--and Graduation.

I believe I speak for the majority of our group when I say we leave with mixed feelings of joy and sadness, and with appreciation in our hearts for all the help we have received from our beloved parents, many of whom sacrificed greatly to make this day possible for us, and from the various members of our Charlton High Faculty who have worked hard to help us achieve our many goals. We address a special note of thanks to our principal, Mr. Robert Ewing, who was faculty chairman of our Paper Drive, Senior Supper, and Senior Auction; to Mrs. Emma Hammond for directing our Junior and Senior Proms and having charge of our rings and our Yearbook advertising; and last, but not least, to our class advisors, Mrs. Mabel Fiske and Mr. Donald Sullivan, who directed our Candy Sales, Card and Gift Campaigns, Yearbook, Senior Class Play, and Class Day activities and Graduation speeches.

Class Prophecy

It is the summer of 1980, and the day is June 7, exactly twenty years since the day our class graduated. We had agreed to have a class reunion to see what had become of our classmates. I, Elsie Phillips, now Mrs. Howard Lanza, was preparing for the big occasion when the phone rang.

It was Joanne Miller, now a member of the House of Representatives, telling me that she would be a little late for the reunion, because of a special Congressional meeting with the President of the United States, none other than our own Martin Sleeper. She said his plans were to make a foreign relations tour of 10 planets in his FL-46 rocket. There to assist him, was Dorothy McKissick, now a Rocket Stewardess for Martin only.

As I was looking out the window, I saw two cars pull into the drive. Lorraine Robidoux, now Mrs. Elton Gallaway, Jean Robbins, Maureen Drake, Renny Berg, Mary Casey, Lorraine Boulanger, and Harold Russell were in the first car. Jean told me she is now Secretary of TWA; and from her appearance, I'd say she is doing very well. Maureen Drake, now a well-known hairdresser, is owner of Maureen's House of Beauty and married to Renny Berg, who is a lawyer. Renny told me he is now working on the divorce suit of Ruth Miller and Donald Vaudell, who have been married for 3 years and were still fighting.

Mary Casey informed me that she is now a Telephone operator at the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company and has been blessed with five wonderful children.

Harold Russell couldn't be overlooked, because of his well-groomed appearance, which no doubt helped him acquire the position he holds as manager of Sacks 5th Avenue, of New York City. With him was Lorraine Boulanger, a famous designer of women's apparel, working for various concerns in New York.

Every eye turned to Thomas Cooper and Russell Harman, now National Executive Secretary and National Advisor of Agriculture, respectively, as they entered the room. Tom told me that he and Russell were on a cruise to see different breeds of animals and had to report back in Boston before the end of the week.

Along with Tom and Russell were Waldo Eastman, Ernest Sahlin, Quentin Kuehl, and Edgar Barnes. Waldo is now the owner of Madore Lumber Company and from what I hear he has more houses to build than he has time.

At this time, I called my guests' attention to the punch table. As I started to serve, I filled Ernest Sahlin's glass; and during our conversation I learned that he is now owner of the No-Nox Gas Station and branches. And you can't imagine who works for him---Thomas Perreault, a master mechanic.

As I renewed old acquaintances, I conversed with Quentin Kuehl, now a famous pediatrician, who had just delivered, as a favor for Edgar Barnes, a prize-winning Guernsey calf. Edgar is now the owner of a large dairy farm.

As more guests arrived, I had a chance to talk with Vincent Barnard and Ronald Roix, who are now manager and coach, respectively, of the world-famous Celtics Basketball team. They derived the ability of leadership from those days in the "gym," with Mr. Ball.

Hazel Judkins, now a famous actress for MGM Studios in Hollywood, told me that her picture, "THE CALL OF THE FLIRTATIOUS," was soon to be released.

Speaking of entertainers, William Walker, who has finally realized his life's ambition, is now a famous clown with Ringling Brothers. Bill has promised to entertain us by doing a few of his crowd-pleasing antics.

Carmen Smeltzer, who is very well known for his skin-diving work, was proving this by repeatedly dipping into the fruit-punch bowl. And who should be there to assist him but Katherine Tiberii, now a Physical Education instructor, who specializes in rebuilding underdeveloped personnel. Others who have made a career in the public service are these four very charming nurses: Elaine Clark, now head nurse at Hahnemann Hospital in Worcester; Sandra Stone, a registered nurse at old C.H.S.; Cynthia Tucker and Leah Roy who are busily engaged in helping to deliver infants at Worcester Memorial Hospital.

The response to the Orchestra's first tune was well received. Before long, I found myself dancing with Frank Hammond, a contractor working for Trahan Brothers. He told me that he was working along with Waldo who had got quite a few contracts for him. As we danced, I noticed two more familiar faces and as we got closer, I realized it was Sally Davis and Albert Thibaudeau. Sally is now a teacher of Physics. She teaches a course by TV three times a week and has a class of 50,000 students and not a single discipline problem.

Albert works at the Shawmut Bank of Boston, carrying on transactions for many people. He said that he had just finished making a loan of several million dollars to John D. Rockefeller, the 5th.

Sally told me that Elaine Davis would be unable to attend because of her performance in TV commercials, a career she has followed ever since she won the Miss America contest.

I soon found that Betty Blais, now Mrs. Robert Jones, and Jacklyn Davis, Mrs. Bobby Lewell, were unable to attend, because they were busy with their young children. Betty's lucky number is three, while Jacky's number is four.

More guests arrived--John and Peter Loconto, among them. They said they were lucky to be here, as they had had a hard time getting away from the restaurant. Oh, yes, John is the owner of Howard Johnson's; Peter is his business manager.

John said he had bought a lot of restaurant supplies from David Williams, owner of Stop and Shop. David couldn't attend the reunion, because he got in the way of a person who decided to "Shop and then Stop."

Just as I finished talking to John and Peter, four girls accompanied by three fellows, walked in. Grace Stockman, a model in Barbara's Bridal Shoppe; Mildred Clark, Instructor of a Driver Education course, in Boston; and Sylvia Burns and Marcia Vesey, famous artists for Walt Disney Studios. (They draw the Donald Duck series). The men were Warren Snow, funeral Director of the Swan Funeral Home; Carl Stone, chef at the Public House; and Roland Lataille, a photographer for ROSYL Photo Company.

As all the guests had appeared, we gathered around the hall, and Roland took our pictures.

At this time, Elton and Lorraine suggested that we all go to their Appian Pizza Way, in Worcester, where she would treat us to a large family size pizza.

This reunion is something we will always remember. It was filled with many surprises. We hope we can have another one before 20 years go by, because it is always a treat to see the friends with whom you went to school.

Last Will and Testament

By Elaine Davis

We, the Class of 1960, being of lawful age, of sound and disposing mind, memory, and judgment, do hereby make, and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, to be administered as follows:

- I, Vincent Barnard, leave my books and basketballs to the Salvation Army.
- I, Edgar Barnes, leave, still full of hot air.
- I, Renny Berg, leave my way with the women to Keith Knowlton.
- I, Elizabeth Blais, leave my athletic ability to Pat Miller.
- I, Lorraine Boulanger, leave my odd taste to anyone who likes to be different.
- I, Sylvia Burns, leave my eyelash curler to Marilyn Johnson.
- I, Mary Casey, leave history class for good.
- I, Elaine Clark, leave my soft-spoken manner to Marie St. Martin.
- I, Mildred Clark, leave my driver's license to Sears & Roebuck.
- I, Tommy Cooper, leave 'cause everyone else is.
- I, Elaine Davis, leave good ole' Hercules to Mr. Burns.
- I, Jacklyn Davis, leave today to become Mrs. Bobby Lowell tomorrow.
- I, Sally Davis, leave my excess poundage to Evelyn Rollins.
- I, Maureen Drake, leave my car payments to Howard Johnson's.
- I, Waldo Eastman, leave my sympathy for accidental injuries to Sandra Freudenthal.
- I, Franklin Hammond, leave the pair of pants I lost in gym to whoever can find them.
- I, Russell Harman, leave all my agricultural honors to my sister, Linda.
- I, Hazel Judkins, leave my bottle of peroxide to anyone who's got courage enough to use it.
- I, Quentin Keuhl, leave my ability to get shot out of trees to any unfortunate Romeo.
- I, Roland Lataille, leave Sylvia, darn it!
- I, John Loconto, leave to all future Student Council Presidents my illustrated novel entitled, "How To Bang the Gavel in One Easy Lesson."
- I, Peter Loconto, leave a well-beaten path to the girls' dorm at U. Mass.
- I, Dotty McKissick, leave my joyful Fridays and blue Mondays to Susan Paquin.
- I, Joanne Miller, leave still studying.
- I, Ruth Miller, leave my infectious giggle to Marilyn Whitcomb.
- I, Tommy Perrault, leave my garrison belt, patched up dungarees, and engineer boots to George Chicoine.
- I, Elsie Phillips, leave my genuine blonde hair to Beverly Stone.
- I, Jean Robbins, leave my mysterious inability to make first period class on time to Arthur Sleeper.
- I, Lorraine Robidoux, leave my typewriter to anybody's fingers who can stand it.
- I, Ronald Roix, leave as usual - without any textbooks.
- I, Leah Roy, leave, proving "Silence is Golden."
- I, Harold Russell, leave all my clothes to Robert Hall.
- I, Ernest Sahlin, leave my hot-rod books to future Lakers.
- I, Martin Sleeper, leave my gift of gab to a tongue-tied Freshman.
- I, Carman Smeltzer, leave my whiskers to any "little shaver" who wants them.
- I, Warren Snow, leave my ability to sell "ice to the Eskimos" to Paul Peterson.
- I, Grace Stockman, leave my quiet, reserved ways to Bernadette Prunier.
- I, Carl Stone, leave my part-time work to whoever can stand the long hours.
- I, Sandra Stone, leave my bubbling personality to Barbara Jones.
- I, Albert Thibaudeau, leave my ability to sleep in class to anyone who has insomnia.
- I, Katherine Tiberii, leave my mind--in hopes that someone else can make it up.
- I, Cindy Tucker, leave my inquisitive ways to Kathleen Casey.
- I, Donald Vaundell, leave my delicate walk to someone who can fill my shoes.
- I, Marcia Vesey, leave my shortness to any tall girl who would like to be shorter.
- I, Billy Walker, leave my English book to someone who will get more use out of it than I did.
- I, David Williams, leave nothing! I'm taking it all with me!

Class Song

Tune: Among My Souvenirs

By: Sally Davis, Elsie Phillips and Sandra Stone

It's Graduation Day,
We leave to start anew.
As Seniors we must say
So long to all of you.

And now we leave the key,
A symbol of success,
To Juniors one and all,
For joy and happiness.

Our thanks to Mrs. Fiske,
For all the work she's done,
Forever in our hearts
We'll hold her love and devotion.

We're at our journey's end
We'd like to stay but then,
The time is drawing nigh
When we must say good-bye.

A surreal, geometric illustration of a city street. The scene is composed of various rectangular blocks and planes that create a sense of depth and perspective. In the center, a large, white, three-dimensional letter 'Q' is superimposed over the architecture. Several small, dark, five-pointed stars are scattered around the 'Q'. Below the 'Q', a horizontal rectangular sign with a dark background and white text reads 'ADVERTISING'. Below the sign, a large, stylized dollar sign '$' is visible, also appearing to be part of the architectural structure. The overall style is reminiscent of mid-century modern graphic design, with a focus on bold shapes and perspective.

COMMENCEMENT

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of a successful four years, but also a "beginning of graduation life." Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.
